Work Offered

de Architecten Cie. is an internationally operating architectural firm. An ambitious team of architects with different backgrounds and nationalities will be happy to make sure you gain as much experience as possible in projects of various sizes in different stages of the design process.

In general the idea is that the trainee gains extensive practical experience by assisting the architects. The best way to accomplish this is to contribute to different projects and to work in a team as well as independently. During the traineeship the trainee will work on projects varying in scale, type and design phase.

More specific tasks of the trainee are f.i. making models, preparing presentations, making architectural drawings (Revit, AutoCad) and visualizations (Photoshop, InDesign, Rhinoceros, V-Ray). Manufacturing of models in polystyrene foam, plastic or wood. Research for reference projects. Studies of facades.
